BASEBALL 1974

Names like Nolan Ryan, Dave Johnson, Dick Williams, Mike Marshall and Charles O. Finley made baseball news during and after the 1973 season, but all were dwarfed by the news of Hank Aaron's pursuit of a ghost and his magic number of 714.

Home run number 713 came on Sept. 29 against Jerry Reuss of the Houston Astros. Numbers 714 and 715 will not only make the victimized pitchers eternally famous to trivia buffs, they will also make Bad Henry the greatest home run hitter in the history of baseball.

While Aaron was chasing Ruth, the baseball world was not exactly standing around and watching. California's Nolan Ryan broke Sandy Koufax' season strike out record; Atlanta's Dave Johnson broke Rogers Hornsby's record for most home runs by a second baseman in a season; Mike Marshall pitched in more games in one season than any hurler before him; the New York Mets came from out of nowhere to win the National League pennant; the Oakland A's won their second straight championship; and Charles O. Finley, Dick Williams, the New York Yankees and American League President Joe Cronin went through a series of maneuvers which proved in the end that Dick Williams was still Oakland's manager despite accepted resignations and signed contracts.

Another big news-maker in '73 was the American League's usage of the designated hitter. Those who benefited most from the new rule seemed to be the veteran players whose careers had begun a downward spiral. The most proficient DHs were Boston's Orlando Cepeda, Baltimore's Tommy Davis, Minnesota's Tony Oliva, Texas' Alex Johnson and California's Frank Robinson.

The playoffs, for the first time, featured four teams which had been winners in previous playoff series. In the N.L., the Cincinnati Reds took on the latest version of the "Miracle" Mets, with the Mets coming out the victors, 3 games to 2. The A.L. had the Baltimore Orioles, winners in all nine of their previous playoff games, vs. the defending champion Oakland A's. That series also went five games with the Athletics winning.

The World Series had as much action off the field as on. The biggest story during the Series was the Mike Andrews-Charles O. Finley affair. Andrews made two errors in Game 2 and was "fired" the next day by his team's owner. He was reinstated by order of the Commissioner before Game 3 but the story had already become the dominant one of the Series.

Meanwhile, on the field, the A's and the Mets battled it out for seven games, with Oakland taking the winner's share when it was over. The Athletics thus became the first team to win back-to-back championships since the New York Yankees turned the trick in 1961 and '62.

1974 will be dominated by Hank Aaron and his quest for the greatest of all baseball records. Familiar faces will pop up in new places: Willie McCovey, Glenn Beckert, Matty Alou and Bobby Tolan in San Diego; Juan Marichal, Rick Wise and Dick McAuliffe in Boston; Willie Davis in Montreal, Reggie Smith in St. Louis; Mike Marshall, Tommie Agee and Jimmy Wynn in Los Angeles; Lindy McDaniel in Kansas City; Ferguson Jenkins in Texas; and Ron Santo in Chicago, but this time with the White Sox. There'll be plenty of excitement in plenty of places in the coming season.

EASTERN DIVISION

PITTSBURGH — Counting on bounce back after miserable season. Stargell, coming off super year, Sanguillen, Oliver, Zisk and Hebner will supply the punch but pitching must come through. Acquisition of Brett and Reuss should help. Giusti, Rooker, Ellis, Moose all sound. Blass is a question mark after '73.

NEW YORK — Will go as far as pitching will take them. Staff of Seaver, Matlack, Koosman, Stone with McGraw and Parker in the pen is as good as any. Need punch from bats of Jones, Milner and Staub. Millan and Harrelson solidify infield. Garrett may solve perennial 3B problem. Center field will be up for grabs with Hahn the favorite.

ST. LOUIS — Almost made it in '73 behind Brock, Torre, Simmons and solid pitching. Gibson coming off injury but is still Gibson. Picked up McGlothen, Curtis and Siebert from AL to shore up staff. Reggie Smith will add much needed power. Tyson came on to take charge of shortstop position. Sizemore still steady at second.

MONTREAL — This could be the year for Mauch's Montreal Marauders. The Marshall for Davis deal is a classic; good hitter for good pitcher. The bullpen's loss will be the outfield's gain. Singleton, Fairly and Bailey are the big hitters with Hunt and Foli setting the table. Comeback by Stoneman, plus Moore, Rogers, Renko, Torrez and McAnally might be enough.

CHICAGO — Mainstays Santo, Beckert, Jenkins, Hundley gone in rebuilding move. Williams, Cardenal and Monday form solid outfield, club's strength. Kessinger will still be at short. All other positions are pretty much up for grabs. Pappas, Hooton and Reuschel form nucleus of staff.

PHILADELPHIA — Much improved team in '73 and more of the same is expected. Strong starting staff of Carlton, Lonborg, Ruthven and Twitchell. Luzinski, Unser and Robinson make up outfield. Catcher Boone coming off impressive rookie season. Schmidt, Bowa and Montanez are set in infield with second base still open.

WESTERN DIVISION

CINCINNATI — Will again be the team to beat in the West. MVP Rose, Bench, Morgan, Perez always tough. Youngsters Driessen, Armbrister and Griffey should step in and help club. Rettenmund acquired from AL should also help. Pitching consists of Billingham, Kirby, Gullett, Norman, Nelson and Nolan if their arms are sound. Bullpen of Carroll, Hall and Borbon is one of best around.

LOS ANGELES — Once again they will rely on a powerful pitching staff. Sutton, Messersmith, John and Downing will do the bulk of the starting with newly acquired Marshall and veteran Brewer in the pen. Davis will be missed, but hopefully Wynn and Agee can pick up the slack. Buckner and Garvey will share first base, but other positions in Inf. are set with Cey, Russell and Lopes. Ferguson will catch.

SAN FRANCISCO — No problems on offense, but as usual, pitching is the question mark. Bonds, Maddox, Matthews give team powerful outfield. Fuentes and Speier are solid keystone combo. Kingman and Goodson will man the corners with Rader catching. Marichal and McCovey will be missing in '74 in youth movement. Bryant, Bradley, Barr, Sosa and Moffitt are staff nucleus.

HOUSTON — Picked up Osteen from LA to bolster pitching. Forsch, Roberts and Wilson join him as starters, with Dierker if he's sound. Ceden, Watson, Lee May and Rader will supply the power. Milt May and Edwards will share catching chores. Keystone combo of Metzger and Helms is a solid one. Right field job open with Gallagher the leading contender.

ATLANTA — NL's best hitting club last season must get help in pitching department. Lersch should help, but comeback by Gentry will help more. Phil Niekro, Morton, Reed and Harrison are also starters. Hitters are plentiful with Aaron, Garr, Baker, Lum, Johnson and Evans all on hand. The big news on this club is still Aaron vs. Ruth.

SAN DIEGO — Very active trading has made this team respectable offensively, but pitching is thin. McCovey, Tolan, M. Alou, Beckert all traded for. Colbert, Roberts, Gaston and Grubb also on hand. Starting pitchers will be Arlin, Greif, McAndrew and Jones, with Corkins and Troedson also available. This club might be a surprising one in '74.

EASTERN DIVISION

BOSTON — Marichal, Wise, Cleveland, Drago and Segui were all picked up to bolster notoriously weak pitching staff. Lee, Moret and Tiant are holdovers. Outfield has Yastrzemski, Evans, Harper, Carbo and Miller. Infield has Aparicio, Griffin, Petrocelli, McAuliffe, Cater and maybe Yaz. Fisk will catch. Quality player at every position, including DH, where Cepeda was league's best in '73.

BALTIMORE — Five strong starters in Cuellar, Palmer, McNally, Alexander and newcomer Grimsley. Youngsters Bumbry, Coggins and Baylor join vet Blair in outfield. Grich, Belanger and Robinson will be accompanied by either Powell or Williams in infield. Etchebarren and Williams share catching. Davis has been reborn in DH role. The O's are not going to give up the Eastern title without a fight.

DETROIT — Basically the same team that won the title in '72. Kaline, Northrup, Horton, Stanley and Sharon will all see time in the outfield. Brinkman and Rodriguez will man the left side of the infield. Ron Cash and Knox will vie for the 2B job, with Norm Cash and several others at first. Lolich, Coleman, Perry, Fryman, Ray and Walker are the starters, with Hiller in the bullpen. This is a solid, contending team.

NEW YORK — Disappointing season in '73 must be overcome. Piniella acquired to improve offense. Murcer, Munson and Nettles are big guns. Infield could use improvement. Stottlemyre, Peterson, Medich, Dobson and McDowell should start, depending upon Kline's arm trouble. Lyle and Beene will be in pen. If men like White, Hart and Blomberg come through Yanks could move up.

MILWAUKEE — Big hitters Scott and May will make this team a tough one. Infield of Scott, Garcia, Johnson and Money is a steady one. Outfielders will include Berry, Briggs, May and Coluccio. Porter will do bulk of catching. Bell, Colborn, Slaton and Wright will form the starting staff, with Rodriguez and Champion also on hand.

CLEVELAND — Young hitters Bell, Spikes, Hendrick and Ellis will try to lift Tribe out of basement. Pitching staff of Perry, Wilcox, Tidrow, Johnson and Bosman is team's bright spot. Cardenas and Duffy will divide short, with Chambliss, Bell and Brohamer rounding out the infield.

WESTERN DIVISION

OAKLAND — Despite management problems, this is still the class team in the West. Hunter, Blue, Holtzman with Odom, if he can regain his form, will start. Fingers, Knowles and Locker man the bullpen. Jackson, Rudi, Campaneris, Tenace, Bando and North supply most of the punch. The A's have it all, and in abundance.

KANSAS CITY — Otis and Mayberry make them team to be reckoned with. Starters figure to be Splittorff, Busby, Pattin and Briles. McDaniel obtained to strengthen pen. Infield is solid with Patek, Rojas and Schaal joining Mayberry. Otis, McRae, Reichardt and Wohlford will occupy outfield, with Healy and Taylor sharing catching chores.

CHICAGO — Key injuries to Allen and Henderson cost Sox dearly. Acquisition of Santo gives them as much power as anyone. Melton and May will also supply some punch. Pitching may be a problem unless Wood can get some help. Bahnsen, Kaat and McGlothlin will see starting action. Forster might make rotation if the bullpen can spare him. If this team remains injury free it could be the one to take Oakland.

CALIFORNIA — Ryan and Singer make a powerful 1-2, but after them it's trouble. Lockwood, May, Hand and rookie Tanana will all be in the running. There is plenty of batting strength with Robinson, Pinson, Oliver, Epstein, Scheinblum and Brown. If Valentine can come back from injury, Angels might be ready to move up.

MINNESOTA — No big changes on this club. Killebrew at first, Carew at second, Terrell and Thompson at short and Braun at third. Hisle, Darwin, Holt and Brye will handle the outfield, assuming Oliva remains as DH. Hundley and Borgmann should split catching duties. Blyleven, Hands, Decker and Woodson make up starting staff. Twins finished 3rd with same club in '73, everyone else improved.

TEXAS — Young pitching staff will be aided by acquisition of veteran Jenkins. Bibby, Broberg, Clyde and Dunning represent team's future. Spencer, Nelson, Harrah and Fregosi make up infield. Burroughs blossomed as power hitter in '73, and will be joined by Johnson and Tovar in outfield. Fahey and Suarez will contend for regular catching role.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

PETE ROSE of the Reds won the National League Most Valuable Player Award by a narrow margin over Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. The award was established in 1931 by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Rose and Stargell were named on all 24 ballots, with Rose's 274 votes beating out Stargell's 250. The Giants' Bobby Bonds and the Reds' Joe Morgan also had first place votes.

CY YOUNG MEMORIAL

TOM SEAVER of the Mets became the first non-20-game winner to receive the Cy Young Award since the inception of the award in 1956. Seaver's 71 points beat out Montreal's Mike Marshall who got a total of 54. JIM PALMER of the Orioles won the American League award while posting a 22-9 record, and leading the league with an ERA of 2.40. The runner-up was California's Nolan Ryan, author of two no-hitters and a new season strike out record.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MOST VALUABLE PLAYERS

REGGIE JACKSON of the Oakland Athletics became the sixth unanimous American League Most Valuable Player selection in the history of the award. He received all of the possible 336 points, beating out Jim Palmer of the Orioles who received 172 points. Amos Otis of the Royals finished third in the balloting with 112 points. The last unanimous winner was Denny McLain who was so honored in 1968.

1973 WORLD SERIES REVIEW

Before the '73 Series began, the word was that if the Met pitching staff could stop the big hitters of the A's, they would take home the championship. The A's hit no home runs in the first six games but found themselves tied at 3 games, with the seventh game to be played in Oakland. The Oakland power finally asserted itself in that game with Reggie Jackson and Bert Campaneris slugging homers and Oakland winning its second championship in a row.

The heroes were many for both teams. Oakland was led by Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Joe Rudi, Ken Holtzman and Roland Fingers. The Mets' heroes were Rusty Staub, Bud Harrelson and Tug McGraw.

The World Series also saw Willie Mays make his last appearance as an active player. He had the distinction of breaking into the majors on a World Series bound team and bowing out the same way. Somehow it only seems right.
